

Homeschoolers Educational Cruises

*Mayan Ruins and Caribbean
Marine Waters in the Yucatan*

We are fortunate to have unique archaeological sites of ancient human cultures near us in this hemisphere.

The Dzibilchaltun Ruins are accessible from the Port of Progreso (Yucatan) without the necessity of long overland treks. Travel via ocean-liner is the economical method of getting there.

We are offering this economical, educational excursion that could be of interest to Texas homeschoolers who possess the freedom to travel at off-season rates.
